

Welcome to the U.S.A.

Task 1: Which of the words below appeared in the show? Do you remember how they were used?

Potato chips
Indians
Fabulous
Wanna
Awesome
President
Cheer-leader
God
Religion

Democracy
Kings
Communism
Capitalism
Football
Soccer
Tango
Push
Pull

Hafta
Whisper
C'mon
Coach
Couch
Overeating
Jogging
Ugly
Beautiful

Task 2: Are these statements true or false?

1. Marge lives in Colorado.
2. Many people call Europe 'the old country'.
3. It is good to be enthusiastic when talking to people.
4. Americans are very active and enjoy jogging.
5. Potato chips, crisps and French fries are all the same.
6. Basketball is the most popular sport in the U.S.A.
7. Anyone can become the President of the U.S.A.
8. God Save the Queen is the American national anthem.
9. Americans don't wear trousers.
10. Cheerleaders get paid for doing the job.

PHOTOCOPIABLE

<http://learningwithoutborders.eu/>

Welcome to the U.S.A.

NOTES FOR TEACHERS

1. This worksheet is to help you check students comprehension and have a discussion in class after the show. You may follow up by asking students who would like to go to the U.S.A. on a student exchange, and why.
2. Here are the answers to Task 2 questions:
  1. Marge lives in Colorado. F. She lives in Oregon.
  2. Many people call Europe 'the old country'. T
  3. It is good to be enthusiastic when talking to people. T
  4. Americans are very active and enjoy jogging. F. Many are couch potatoes.
  5. Potato chips, crisps and French fries are all the same. F
  6. Basketball is the most popular sport in the U.S.A. F. It's baseball.
  7. Anyone can become the President of the U.S.A. T.
  8. God save the Queen is the American national anthem. F
  9. Americans don't wear trousers. T. They wear pants.
  10. Cheerleaders get paid for doing the job. F